

THE LEARNING TRUST

NURTURING • AMBITION • EXCELLENCE

Andrew Evans

Full Name	Andrew Evans
When I became a Member	November 2019
Previous Governance Experience	I have served as a Charity Trustee in the faith, welfare and education sectors on a number of boards since 2000.
Appropriate qualifications or training attended	I have attended trustee training offered by Cause 4, Liverpool Council for Voluntary Service, Creative United and others over a number of years. I am a Member of the Chartered Institute of Fundraisers.
How knowledge of Governance has been kept up to date	Through a range of courses including those listed above. My day-to-day work also includes offering governance and strategic advice to charities in the arts, culture, education and other sectors.
Roles and Responsibilities	Owner and Director, Think Philanthropy Ltd – consultancy in the fields of fundraising, governance and strategy Trustee of the Equilibrium Foundation grant making trust Trustee of the Ditch Foundation grant making trust Member of the Parochial Church Council of St Michael and All Angels, Chester Vice-President of the National Library of Wales (appointment of the Welsh Government)
Why I am a Member	Although the role of members is, rightly, limited, I believe that it provides a vital layer of accountability to the governance of Multi-Academy Trusts and I am pleased to play my part in ensuring that the governance of the MAT ensures excellent educational opportunities for students, and a good working environment for staff.
What I bring to the role	As well as a personal interest in education I bring strong experience in governance and non-executive roles.
Key Areas of Focus	Appointments, governance
Previous Work Skills and Experience	Director of Development, National Museums Liverpool (2017-2019) Head of Fundraising and Marketing, Bluecoat (2015-2017) Director, Andrew Evans Consulting (2001-2015) Founder and Senior Pastor, Christ Church Liverpool (2003-2015) Trustee, North West Partnership (2004-2014) Trustee, Northern Men's Convention (2005-2012)