

JEAN CHARLTON

Full Name	Jean Charlton
When I became a Trustee	2016
Previous Governance Experience	Governor at Christleton High School since 1998
Appropriate qualifications or training attended	BA (Hons) Business Studies Numerous National Governance Association training, including:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Safeguarding for Governors and Trustees • Safeguarding - Governor's role • Pupil Success and Wellbeing – Exclusions • Pupil Success and Wellbeing – looked after children. Prevent Safeguarding – Basic Awareness Safer Recruitment in Education OFSTED – what governors need to know
How knowledge of Governance has been kept up to date	Through training, regular attendance at meetings, keeping up to date with current affairs with an emphasis on education. Governance Matters – NGA publication Updates from Gov.uk
Roles and Responsibilities	Staffing Safeguarding SEND
Why I am a Trustee	I'm passionate about ensuring that all young people have the opportunity to gain the education, skills and experience they need. Being a Trustee I feel I can help ensure our schools are a safe, happy and nurturing environment, where all our students can be the best they can be.
What I bring to the role	Commitment, energy, and a desire to help young people in our care to reach their full potential. Experience in governance. Experience in the private and public sectors.

THE LEARNING TRUST

NURTURING • AMBITION • EXCELLENCE

Key Areas of Focus	Staffing/Wellbeing Safeguarding SEND To be an active member of the Board and help to drive the continuing success and improvement of our schools.
Previous Work Skills and Experience	Worked at Shell Research for 21 years, and graduated from Staffordshire University with a degree in Business Studies. After a year off, I worked as a Witness Care Officer for Cheshire Police for six years. Since leaving in 2010, I have been able to dedicate more time to the Trust.