

SUSAN EGERSDORFF

Full Name	Susan Egersdorff
When I became a Trustee	I became a Trustee for The Learning Trust in January 2025
Previous Governance Experience	I was previously the deputy CEO of an academy trust of 12 primary schools in the West Midlands. I have also served as a member for a trust in Birmingham for 8 years. I currently serve as a Trustee in another multi academy trust.
Appropriate qualifications or training attended	Masters Degree in Educational Leadership Salzburg Global Education Fellow Honorary Research Associate at the University of Liverpool
How knowledge of Governance has been kept up to date	I regularly take part in training and run a Charity so am constantly involved in ensuring governance arrangements are robust.
Roles and Responsibilities	As I start my journey with the Learning Trust, I will be joining the Quality of Education Panel.
Why I am a Trustee	I am a Trustee because I am passionate about children and young people's learning, health and wellbeing.
What I bring to the role	I bring over 35 years of experience working in education and children's services.
Key Areas of Focus	I hope I can offer support for the development of early years, primary provision and citizenship education. I also have experience of innovative models of educational provision and school environment design.
Previous Work Skills and Experience	Teacher, headteacher, primary adviser, children's services assistant director, director at National College for School Leadership, Deputy Director at DFE for early years and childcare.